

radio and tv stations must be treated as telemarketers because they are; how could you possibly even entertain this idea?